How to Find Journals

Journal finder allows you to search or browse all publications made available to you by your institution, regardless of the vendor or provider. Features a responsive autocomplete function that displays titles containing your search terms as you type them. When the specific title you are searching for appears in the list, simply click the title to view the available options for that title in a result list.

Use the following link to access the journal finder:

► How to Access Resources Remotely

Please go through the Terms and Conditions before accessing resources off campus.

Most of our electronic resources reside on publishers' site and access is enabled on intranet (within campus). However, we have installed a tool through which these resources are accessible off campus as well. Students who are currently affiliated to IIMB may login using their E-mail ID to access the databases. Please contact libraryit@iimb.ernet.in or mihir.panda@iimb.ernet.in

Use the following link to access remotely:
<http://iimb.remotex.in/user/login>

► How to Use One Search Service

On the home page of library sites you will find a widget which is helpful to search and locate articles, eBooks, and many more in one platform. This portal relieves you from identifying and visiting individual publisher's site to retrieve relevant information.

Use the following link to access Single Search:
